Section 6 – Emergency Evacuation Routes

This information should be readily available onboard. However this will have to be updated and reviewed to enable the routes to be used in conjunction with the different access states at security levels 1, 2 and 3. Where possible this information should be shown on the ship's General Arrangement (GA) plan.